

IELTS Speaking

Do you like to lend things to others?

Part 1

Paul Winterbottom

Part 1:

Do you like to lend things to others?

Part 1:

Do you like to lend things to others?

Actually, no, not really... I remember... I think it must have been about... two years ago... I lent my computer to... a really good friend of mine... he said... he would be careful. Unfortunately, he later said that he had... lost it... I think... probably... I can't remember exactly, but I think it might have been... in a taxi... so it was a... it was a really expensive machine... I felt very upset about it... and since then... I try not to give my things to other people.

Part 1:

Do you like to lend things to others?

Actually, no, not really... I remember... I think it must have been about... two years ago... I lent my computer to... a really good friend of mine... he said... he would be careful. Unfortunately, he later said that he had... lost it... I think... probably... I can't remember exactly, but I think it might have been... in a taxi... so it was a... it was a really expensive machine... I felt very upset about it... and since then... I try not to give my things to other people.

