

IELTS Speaking

Part 3: how many...

Paul Winterbottom

Part 3: quantify

How can people become famous?

I suppose...

some people study for a long time

Part 3: quantify

s _____ study for a long time

Part 3: quantify

1. some people...
2. others... (other people)
3. the vast majority of (people)...
4. most people...
5. nearly everyone...
6. lots of people...
7. hardly anyone...
8. a few people...

Part 3: quantify

Do people usually buy stuff after watching advertisements?

I suppose...

some people are easily influenced by what they see in ads

Part 3: quantify

s_____ p_____ are e_____ infl_____ by what they see in ads

Part 3: quantify

1. s_____ p_____ are easily influenced by what they see in ads
2. t_____ vast... prefer tea to coffee
3. a f_____ p_____ have several holidays a year
4. m_____ p_____ do not like people who lie a lot
5. n_____ e_____ thinks it is important to have friends
6. h_____ a_____ is excellent in every subject at school
7. a lot o.... waste too much time on social media

Part 3: quantify

1. I s_____ s_____ p_____ are easily influenced by what they see in ads
2. I t_____ t_____ vast... prefer tea to coffee
3. I g_____ a f_____ p_____ have several holidays a year
4. I am a _____ s_____ that m_____ p_____ do not like people who lie a lot
5. p_____ I b_____ n_____ e_____ thinks it is important to have friends
6. I t_____ h_____ a_____ is excellent in every subject at school
7. p_____ I t_____ a lot o.... waste too much time on social media

Part 3: examples

Do most people mind people talking on the phone in public places?

I suppose it depends what you mean by a “public place”...

if you mean somewhere outside... like a park or in the street... or somewhere like that then... I think that the vast majority of people think it is OK but... if you mean somewhere like a restaurant... then ... I’m not exactly sure but

I guess that most people think it is quite irritating...

Part 3: questions

1. What subjects do young people have strong opinions about?
2. Do people often ask for advice from professional people, like a lawyer?
3. Who do people tend to ask for advice, friends or family members?
4. Do you think there are some people who enjoy crowded places?
5. Do Chinese people prefer to watch domestic movies or foreign movies?
6. Do neighbours often help each other in your country?

