

IELTS Speaking

Structures: wish about present

Paul Winterbottom

Wish about PRESENT: wish + past tense verb

Note: “wish” used for PRESENT or PAST (impossible) – “hope” used for FUTURE (possible)

(to be honest) I (really) wish (that) I had (a bit) more free time (to catch up with my friends)

Wish about PRESENT: wish + past tense verb

(actually) I (really) wish (that) I had more free time

Wish about PRESENT: wish + past tense verb

(actually) I (really) ____ t ____ I h ____ m ____ free time

Wish about PRESENT: wish + past tense verb

1. had more free time
2. lived closer to the centre of the city
3. did not have so much work to do
4. were I lot fitter than I am
5. knew a lot more about history
6. were better at managing my time
7. knew how to manage my time better

