

IELTS Speaking

Speaking features: chunking and stress

Part 1

Paul Winterbottom

Part 1:

Did you have a bike when you were young?

(direct: yes)

Part 1:

Did you have a bike when you were young?

(direct: yes)

actually, yes I did ... I clearly remember my parents gave me one for my birthday... I think I must have been about 8 years old...something like that... maybe a bit younger it wasn't particularly special...actually... I wish it had had gears... unfortunately it did not ... but I still really liked it..

Part 1:

Did you have a bike when you were young?

(direct: yes)

actually, / yes / I did ... / I clearly remember / my parents gave me one / for my birthday... / I think / I must have been about / 8 years old... / something like that... / maybe a bit younger... / it wasn't particularly special... / actually... I wish it had had gears... / unfortunately it did not ... / but I still really liked it...

c28 secs

Part 1:

Did you have a bike when you were young?

(direct: yes)

1. actually, / yes / I did ... / I clearly remember / my parents gave me one / for my birthday...
2. I think / I must have been about / 8 years old... / something like that... / maybe a bit younger...
3. it wasn't particularly special...
4. actually... I wish it had had gears...
5. unfortunately it did not ... / but I still really liked it...

