The conversation: reported speech

We (all) talked about what we had been doing since we had last met...

Actually I don't remember everything but I do remember that Anne said that she had been studying really hard and had not had any free time for ages – so she was really happy to have a break from her work

And Janet said that she had started studying German and had found a really great teacher. I asked her if she could say something in German but she said she felt a little bit shy so she would rather not...

To be honest I think we had all been quite busy and enjoying our lives.

But It was really great to catch up with everyone's news and gossip...
